

Cigna Medical Vaccine Program Directory Pharmacies

Cigna is pleased to announce that our customers may be able to receive the seasonal flu vaccine, as well as other select vaccines, at several retail pharmacy locations. These can be administered at the following pharmacies and will be billed through your Cigna medical benefit plan in accordance with your medical benefit coverage. Flu vaccines will be covered at no cost to you. Please present your Cigna medical ID card to the pharmacy.

You may also use the online provider directory to find other participating providers, such as physicians or other locations where you can utilize this service. If you need assistance, please call the customer service number on your ID card.
